

In dwelling units with more than one sleeping area, a smoke detector should be provided to protect each sleeping area in addition to detectors required in bedrooms.

A Smoke Detector should be located on each story.